

"Practical Problem-Solving Advice for Publishers"

Acknowledgement of McHugh Advisors, Clients, and Supporters

© 2020 by John B. McHugh

I compiled this list to show appreciation for those who have done a variety of things for me in my publishing career. They have reviewed new papers, advised me, referred me to prospects, served as references, have been clients, have been mentors, and, in short, been kind and generous to me. Thank you to each of you.

Jack McHugh

P.S. If I have omitted your name and you should be included, let me know. Also, if I have incorrectly listed your affiliation or if you want it changed, let me hear from you.
